Title: The Seals Of The Blight.

Author: P.F.

The seals of the
blight are magic
wards that are locks
of the prison known as the blight.

For everything being held at the blight
three seals are created. These seals are then spread across the land to be lost, or givin to the prisoners enemies.

The prisoners are bound to the power of the blight by the one
known as the Forsaken, of the Great Lord of the Dark. Currently two are known to walk
among the lands.
To release a prisoner
from the blight all the seals must be brought to the blight itself,
and placed at the head of the gate leading into the blight. There the gate will open.
The only other way
a prisoner can be released is if one
seal and the Forsaken who created it are destroyed together.

There might be more
things to these seals
but i am to afraid to continue my research.
